

CALIFORNIA ALL-STATE

CASMEC

MUSIC EDUCATION CONFERENCE

CONDUCTING SYMPOSIUM

Dr. Gary P. Gilroy
California State University, Fresno

Dr. Andy Collinsworth
Sonoma State University

SYMPOSIUM DESCRIPTION:

The California Band Directors Association and Guy Lake Batons are proud to present the CASMEC Wind Band Conducting Symposium. We are bringing in two fantastic clinicians to CASMEC to share their knowledge with 12 attendees. Dr. Gary P. Gilroy from California State University, Fresno and Dr. Andy Collinsworth from California State University, Sonoma. The symposium will take place throughout the day on Wednesday, February 15th, and Thursday morning/early afternoon, February 16th. In order to apply for this event, please fill out the link on this page.

REPERTOIRE:

March of the Belgian Paratroopers, arr. Swearingen
Loch Lomond, Frank Ticheli
Three Latin Dances, Jeff Tyzick

SPONSORS:

COST:

The cost of this event is $125 for CBDA members and $175 for non-CBDA members. Two spots will be reserved for teachers with five years or less experience, including college students. CASMEC attendees are invited to attend the Symposium as an observer at no additional cost.

CLICK HERE TO APPLY

DEADLINE TO APPLY:

Friday, December 12, 2022. Selected applicants will be notified by Friday, December 16, 2022.

Custom Batons

N. Guy Lake
Conductor-Craftsman