

Dr. Selim Giray serves as Director of Orchestral Studies at the University of Mississippi and conductor of the Memphis Youth Symphony Program's Chamber Orchestra. He performed extensively in four continents and appeared frequently on radio and television. For the last three years, Giray served on ASTA National Board as Member-at-Large. Most recently, Giray has performed the duties of cover conductor for the Memphis Symphony Orchestra and Memphis Ballet for the productions of Nutcracker (2022), and Cinderella (2023). Previously, Giray served as Concertmaster and Assistant Conductor at the Ohio Light Opera. He is featured on numerous CDs and can be heard on Naxos Online Library. Giray studied the violin with Eliot Chapo, former Concertmaster of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, Fritz Gearhart, Visiting Professor of Violin at University of Colorado Boulder; conducting with Dr. William Intriligator, Director of Dubuque and Cheyenne Symphony Orchestras, and Roman Skřeppek, former Conductor at the Opera of the Košice State Theater.