

Sound Check

EFFECTIVE TEACHING TECHNIQUES TO IMPROVE YOUR FLUTE SECTION'S TONE AND INTONATION

Dr. Brittany Trotter

California All-State Music Education Conference | Sacramento, California – January 17, 2025

Dr. Brittany Trotter leads a diverse career as an educator, soloist, and collaborator. She is the Assistant Professor of Flute and Program Director of Woodwinds at the University of the Pacific's Conservatory of Music. Trotter has been awarded first prize in several competitions including the FNMC's 2024 Flute Artist Competition and semi-finalist in the 2017 Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition. She regularly performs, teaches, and serves as a guest lecturer throughout the United States and performed at numerous music festivals including the National Flute Association Convention where she was a featured soloist in the 2020 virtual summer series celebration concert series.

Trotter is the recipient of the NFA's 2020 Graduate Research Competition for her dissertation entitled, Examining Music Hybridity and Cultural Influences in Valerie Coleman's Wish Sonatine and Fanmi Imén. A native of Laurel, Mississippi, Trotter has received degrees from the University of Southern Mississippi (B.M., B.M.E.), University of Wyoming (M.M.), and West Virginia University (D.M.A., Certificate of University Teaching

Scan QR Code for flute and piccolo resources

www.brittanytrotterflute.com